Description:	WRITE2PERFORM: An initiative established to showcase the talents and achievements of Patrick G Hughes (Writer, performer, director & producer) and his facilitation work; supporting the personal, professional and artistic growth of writers and other (Aspiring / Established) theatre practitioners.

WRITING INTO PERFORMANCE:

Courses, workshops and consultations placing emphasis on theatre practice but incorporating the many aspects of creative writing along with dramatic performance – designed to encourage, develop and inspire. Through lectures, discussions, exercises and games participants will gain knowledge of not only writing but also performance, directing and producing; learning how to exist and network themselves within theatre and literary environments.
